Program Topic: “What Does EQ have to do with Quality?”

Quality is more than Operations. It encompasses all the ways “ we organize and do business. This involves an understanding of all people, processes, and systems and ensuring they are all aligned to meet strategic and operational goals that ultimately positively drive and impact business growth.

Quality is more than operations. It requires strong "people skills and mastery".

The "people" side of quality and the importance of having strong Emotional Intelligence in order to have the soft skills needed to enable the hard skills, required to achieve strategic and operational goals that ultimately positively drive and impact business results.

Speaker: Jane Loya Ryan, Jane Ryan & Associates

- After 20 successful years as a consultant for two global consulting firms, Jane went on a personal journey in search of her true self. She went back to college and into graduate school with degrees in psychology and is currently completing her PhD in Neuropsychology this year.

- Right around 2007, she found herself immersed in helping people who were laid off from work due to the economic downturn. Today, she continues to successfully and measurably, help those in career and life transformations.
 - Jane is the Founder of Jane Ryan & Associates, LLC, a Dallas based woman-owned coaching business helping individuals and organizations define their vision and achieve targeted goals.
 - Jane’s passion is helping other’s find theirs!

Tutorial 1: “Team Selection for Project Success ”

To be effective teams need the right mix of knowledge, skills, and abilities. Most team leaders choose team members with these traits in mind. Unfortunately, even with the ‘right mix’ of KSAs some teams will struggle. Is it possible that personality type also plays a role?

In this talk you will get a refresher on team selection basics, then delve more deeply into how getting the right combination of personality types is also critical to developing a high-performing team.

Based on ideas developed by Meredith Belbin, you will learn about nine different personality types when people serve on teams. A brief definition of each type will be shared, along with their associated strengths and weaknesses.

ASQ members can learn which of these types are most like their own traits. And how this knowledge can impact their activities at work, whether on teams or not.

Speaker: Russ Aikman , Lean Six Sigma Program Manager, TMAC.

- Russ has more than 25 years’ experience in continuous improvement. He is a Lean Six Sigma Master Black Belt and has worked in a variety of business environments including manufacturing and service/transactional companies.
