6:00 Presentation: “Meet the New Quality Tools on The Block: ChatGPT and AI!”

There are a lot of mixed feelings about artificial intelligence and ChatGPT. Accounting and finance professionals might be excited, nervous, confused, or worried about it. What we fail to realize is technological disruption has happened throughout history.

Tools like ChatGPT provide a huge opportunity to increase our efficiency and save time. Artificial intelligence tools are here to stay and will continue to advance in the future.

This session will:

- 1) provide an overview of artificial intelligence and ChatGPT
- 2) examine how artificial intelligence tools can be applied at work
- 3) share thoughts on the implications of artificial intelligence on the future of work
